

Fearless Martha – Conduct an Interview

Imagine yourself as a reporter for the South Carolina Gazette in Charleston. You have been sent by the owner, Peter Timothy. Timothy was one of the Sons of Liberty, all Patriots, expressed his views on the British occupation in Charleston. Some called him one of the first war correspondents. As the owner of the paper, he wants to publish information about other battles and skirmishes all over the state.

You have been sent to the New Acquisition to interview participants about the Battle of Huck's Defeat. Write out your interview questions and the answers. Have you learned anything new about this battle?

Possible people to interview: Young William, Captain Adamson, John Carroll, Carolina, etc.

